

Diefendorf Captures TAB's Top Award

The Alternative Board of LI Selects Roey Diefendorf To Receive Its “Vision Award” for 2011

Stephen Davies, the Long Island Executive Director of TAB selected Roey Diefendorf, CEO of Diefendorf Capital to receive the 2011 Vision Award.

Jericho, NY - PRWEB – February 3, 2012

In a ceremony at the historic Millerage Inn, NY, Monroe “Roey” Diefendorf, Jr. was honored by his when he was selected to receive TAB’s Business Vision Award for 2011. This decision was based upon Diefendorf’s white paper entitled “Sustainability 2075.”

“Sustainability 2075” provides the Diefendorf management team the framework for decision making both now and in the future. All decision will be reached based upon the long term effects which will allow Diefendorf Capital to remain a viable and vibrant organization right up to its 200th anniversary in 2075.

During the awards ceremony, Steve Davies had these words to share. “Roey has a perspective that transcends the generations. He is a true visionary.”

The Alternative Board (TAB) is an international membership organization of thousands of CEOs, presidents, business owners and partners worldwide who are dedicated to improving their businesses.

TAB LI organizes boards of non-competing Long Island companies that meet every month in a small advisory group with their peers and a TAB Certified facilitator. Each group collectively has hundreds of years of business experience and each TAB Board members will help you redefine your role in your company, set personal and business goals and stay on target to meet them. The Long Island TAB has over 120 businessmen and women.

To learn about The Alternative Board, go to www.TABli.com. To learn more about Diefendorf Capital Planning Associates, go to www.DiefendorfCapital.com.